TAFT TELLS VETERANS OF ARBITRATION TREATIES

Spoke of Treaties With England and France at Manassas Peace Jubilee—Fiftieth Anniversary of Battle Ended Auspiciously Yesterday.

Special to Telegram.

Manassas, Va., July 21.—General arbitration treaties between the United States on one hand and Great Britain and France on the other will be signed within ten days. This announcement was made by President Taft this afternoon before the reunion of the Civil War veterans at Manassas, gathered on the fiftieth anniversary of that great battle.

President Taft told the veterans that he had saved this announcement for them as he felt that they, who had seen real war, would appreciate the value of permanent peace. He was enthusiastically applauded by the crowd.

After one of the most strenuous auto trips of his experience the President arrived at Manassas more than an hour late, having made a detour of 10 miles around an impassable for swollen by the heavy rains of the afternoon. For the first time since he became President he left the secret service men behind. Their automobile was stopped in the middle of Rocky Run road, 10 miles from Manassas.

Senator Brannan with a party of senators, including Senator Martin and Representative Carlin, was left in the middle of a ford half a mile behind the President's machine. At Manassas the party took a special train for Washington, reaching there in time for a late dinner. Those in the party with President Taft were Senators Nelson, Bacon, Overman, Brannan, Martin, Representative Carlin and Solicitor General Lehman.

Manassas, Va., July 21.—The Blue and the Gray marched across the fields of Manassas to meet each other again today. This incident, unique in history, the meeting of Federal and Confederate veterans on the field where they fought a mighty battle just fifty years ago, attracted as witnesses the President of the United States, the Governor of Virginia, the home of the Confederate capital, and visitors from many states.

It was the crowning feature of the Manassas peace jubilee and reunion which began last Sunday with a sermon on the court house lawn by Rev. H. N. Camden, chaplain of the House of Representatives, who lost his sight while serving in the Union ranks.

It was on July 21, 1861, just fifty years ago today, that Bull Run, or the first battle of Manassas, was fought. The Confederates under Johnson, were accredited with a decisive victory over the Union forces under McDowell the retreat of the Federals leaving practically a clear road to Washington for the Confederates, it is said, had they chosen to continue their advance on the Capital. This was the first real battle of the war, and its result awakened the North for the first time to a realization of what the secession of the Southern States meant. It was here that "Stonewall" Jackson gained the name which will be associated with his memory for all time.

In August, 1862, Manassas was again the scene of a bloody battle. Lee and Longstreet and Sykes, Reno and Reynolds fought to a draw, the battle lines being exactly the reverse of what they were the year before.

The jubilee reunion was planned by committees of the Grand Army of the Republic and the United Confederate Veterans. Interesting events have taken place each day this week, sessions of the national organization of "The Blue and the Gray and Their Sons," being held today.

The Manassas national anthem adopted by the committee, was written by Mrs. Mary Speed Mercer, of Elm City, N. C. This is the chorus: "America, all hail to thee, Thanks be to God who made us free. North, South, East, West, hand clasped in hand, United, we, thy children, stand."

Corn Crop Good in Macon County.

Special to Telegram.

Raleigh, July 21.—Assistant Attorney General George L. Jones, just back from his home at Franklin, Macon county, says that the farmers in that section of the State have scarcely ever had such prospects for a big corn crop as at present. The fields, he says, are that rank and rich in the growth of the corn that they are black. He says that all through that country there are prize acres and a number of demonstrations by the State Department of Agriculture.

PROHIBITION ELECTION IN TEXAS TODAY

After Strenuous Campaign Voters Will Decide Fight at Polls.

Dallas, Texas, July 21.—It is north Texas against south Texas in tomorrow's state-wide prohibition election, according to dispatches today on the closing of the campaign in the cities, towns and more important county seats throughout the entire state.

The antis are making the most confident claims in south Texas, while the prohibitionists are doing the same in north Texas from Louisiana to the New Mexican state line. It is noticeable, however, that the greater number of these "claims" or "conceded majorities" on either side are by a very small margin. "Overwhelming majority" is almost an unheard of expression.

Campaigning appears to have been warmest at least in the number of speeches made, in the populous sections of north and east Texas. As an indication of today's claims throughout those sections it may be said that out of about 60 towns, the number where the prohibitionists claim a distinct majority and where the pro and anti claims make an even break are about equal.

Today's summaries of the campaign are notable for absence of mention of more than sporadic charges of corruption on either side.

NORMAL FOR THE INSTITUTE WORKERS

Special to Telegram.

Raleigh, July 21.—Good progress is being made in the normal for farmer's institute workers in three days session here. The best methods of treating in institutes the culture of cotton, corn and fruits, vegetables and tobacco all came up for consideration today and tonight. And the work for the ladies' institutes was considered profitably in a separate session for the workers in women's institutes. Among those here for this normal institute work and who will be with one or another of the six parties that will be in every section of the State during August are: For women's institutes, Mrs. Henrietta V. Calvin, Perdue University, director; Miss Minnie W. Hopper, Waynesboro, Miss. Miss Emily Orr, Statesville; Mrs. Alva M. Bird, Marion; Miss Minnie L. STOOD WOMAN ON HEAD IN AISLE OF TRAIN.

Special to Telegram.

Kansas City, Mo., July 21.—H. W. Wickliffe, a wealthy Oklahoma business man, was fined $200 in court here today for performing an unusual act on a passenger train. Wickliffe, tired of shooting at rabbits from the car window, turned to a pretty young woman by his side, who he claimed was his wife, and picking her up stood her upon her head in the aisle, her clothing falling about her head. She laughed merrily when replaced upon her feet. The act caused horror among the passengers, especially the ladies in the car.

Aviator Harry N. Atwood Flies Over White House, Then Drops Down on the Lawn to Call on Mr. Taft.

Harry N. Atwood is the first aviator to use his aeroplane to call at the White House to see the president of the United States. After finishing a flight from Boston to the capital Mr. Atwood took luncheon with the Aero club of Washington and then hurried to Potomac park, where he had left his machine. He soared from there to a point directly over the White House, while President Taft and many army officers as well as thousands of spectators watched him. He glided downward as if about to land, then rose and flew toward the Washington monument, a quarter of a mile away. He circled around the monument several times, often going so close that it seemed a wing of his machine was about to graze the tall shaft. Then he flew over to the Virginia side of the Potomac river, turned, passed directly over the monument and dropped rapidly to the lawn. He made a perfect landing in a space between the trees that was not more than 150 feet long. He was introduced to President Taft, who presented a gold medal commemorating the flight from Boston. The medal was the gift of the Washington Aero club. After a few minutes Atwood again mounted his machine, rose gracefully over the trees and sailed away.

BEATTIE

Charged With Murder of His Wife—Richmond Aroused Over Shooting.

Special to Telegram.

Washington, July 21.—When Henry Clay Beattie, Jr., was placed under arrest tonight public interest in the investigation of the murder of Mrs. Henry Clay Beattie, Jr., on last Tuesday became so intense that the home of Coroner Loving, where the inquiry is being conducted, was surrounded by a large crowd of persons. Paul Beattie, a cousin of the young husband, was also arrested and is being held as a witness.

Paul Beattie testified before the jury earlier in the day that he purchased a shot gun and four cartridges for Henry Clay Beattie and had delivered them to his cousin three days before the shooting. The statement tended to increase in some measure the suspicion that Henry Clay Beattie might have shot his beautiful wife, but it was followed by such a peculiar circumstance that the mystery is more baffling than ever. Paul Beattie attempted to take his own life immediately after his arrest, according to a report. Why he should do such a thing when the direct suspicion has not been attached to him is an insoluble problem, the police say. It is said that the young man Paul was rushed to the city home under guard and that the physicians found him suffering from a hemorrhage. The report is that his attempt at suicide is the cause of his condition.

Henry Clay Beattie, who told so straight and forward a story is taking his arrest as a matter of course. He smoked cigarettes while waiting his hearing before the coroner today. His story was that while riding with his wife on the pike a man suddenly appeared in the road and when he slowed up to avoid an accident the man raised a gun and fired point blank. He felt Mrs. Beattie sink against him and realized that she had been shot. He then jumped out of the auto and grappled with the man, taking his gun from him. While returning to the city after he saw that his wife was dead the gun jolted from the car.

At a late hour tonight Beattie, who was approached for an interview, stated that he had nothing to say. He appeared as calm and collected as he has been since suspicion was directed against him. The police are still working on the case, but they state that they are pretty well satisfied with the investigation thus far. The interest in the case is intense and everybody is talking about it.

The Inquest. Richmond, Va., July 21.—The coroner's jury began its investigation of the death of Mrs. Henry Clay Beattie today. Beattie, husband of the young woman, was sworn and he told the same story he had previously told the police. Miss Beulah Binford, mother of one of Beattie's children, was also a witness. Paul Beattie, cousin of the husband, just after the inquest was over, confessed that he had bought the gun with which the killing was done with Henry Clay Beattie on July 7 and that the two obtained the weapon together. When confronted with this Henry Clay Beattie positively denied Paul Beattie's statement.

Another Dorothy Arnold Case Is Feared. New York, July 21.—Fearful that they have another Dorothy Arnold case on their hands the police today assigned a force of 12 picked men to search for Lee Swan, a prepossessing 19 year old girl, who has been missing since Monday. She had for some time been prominent in church work. On Monday night she kissed her mother and told her she was going for a walk. She has not been seen since.

PENROSE

Examined Before Lorimer Investigating Committee—Hines' Testimony Corroborated

Special to Telegram.

Washington, July 21.—The name of the secretary of state of New York was brought into the Lorimer investigation today when C. F. Wiehe, one of the central figures in the present hearing testified that $1,000 had been asked of him for a copy of the list of contributors to the Taft campaign fund of 1908. He had been informed by telegraph that the list consisted of 128 pages and that to furnish a certified list would cost him $1,000.

During the examination Wiehe was cross-examined as to the part he and Edward Hines took in the Lorimer election. Attorney Marble, for the committee, directed attention to the night when Wiehe asked Cook and William O'Brien to keep out of the way until after the committee investigation was concluded.

Late this afternoon Senator Penrose, chairman of the committee on finance, was called as a witness. He related to the committee the business he had transacted with Hines while he was on a visit to Washington in the interest of the election of a senator from Illinois. He said Hines had frequently talked the situation over with him and had conferred with Senator Aldrich. He said that he told Hines he was favorable to the election of Hopkins and when told that he had no chance he favored Boutelle. At another conference Hines told him that Boutelle had no chance and that it looked like Lorimer would be elected.

He said that he favored Lorimer as senator, because he was a Republican

WRANGLING EXPECTED IN WAKE COUNTY

Believed That Equalization Board Will be Besieged With Complaints.

Special to Telegram.

Raleigh, July 21.—The sub-commission of the State Commission for the adoption of the textbooks for use in the public schools of the state during the next five years, is working steadily on the personal examination of the hundreds of books being offered for adoption and there is every indication that their reports will all be ready along with recommendations when the full commission meets August 3 when the commission will resume sessions for final adoption. In the meantime the keenest interest is being felt by people in every part of the State as to the books that will be placed in the hands of their children through this impending adoption. While there is talk of there being books that are being urged for adoption that are not in line with Southern thought, sentiment and conception of facts, historic and otherwise, there is general confidence in the wisdom and discrimination of the text book commission when it comes to the passing upon the adaptability of the books being considered.

ANOTHER WARSHIP ORDERED TO HAITI

Special to Telegram.

Washington, July 21.—Late this afternoon the State Department ordered an additional cruiser to Haiti. Three warships are now speeding towards Haiti to protect American interests.

Government Forces Organize. Port au Prince, Hayti, July 21.—The government, strengthened by 1,000 men who arrived during the night from the south on a German steamer has organized a resistance to the revolutionists, who are threatening the capital from the north.

President Simon is directing the defense of the palace. General Sylvain, the new secretary of the interior, has taken command of the government troops concentrated at the port of Achaie, several miles northwest of Port au Prince and into which district the rebels are swarming.

Atwood May Fly Over Washington. Special to Telegram.

Washington, July 21.—To try out his engine and see that everything is in readiness for his proposed flight over Washington tomorrow afternoon Harry N. Atwood shortly before noon today mounted his biplane and took a fifteen minute sky trip. He left afterwards for New York, but stated that he would return in time for the flight tomorrow.

Gates Holding His Own. Special to Telegram.

Paris, July 21.—John W. Gates held his own today, despite the tropical weather and the high humidity. The physicians do not look for any decided change for several days, but it is believed that he is slowly gaining strength.

and he was anxious to see the seat filled by a Republican, knowing that the vote on tariff measures would be close and if Republican success would be assured it was necessary to have a full voting strength. He declared that he did not know Lorimer personally, but by reputation and said that if he was the choice of the legislature he would favor him. His testimony in many respects corroborated what Hines had previously told the committee.

Special to Telegram.

Washington, July 21.—Senator Penrose, who has handled the reciprocity bill in the Senate in what is regarded as a clever manner, had a conference with President Taft today just before the cabinet meeting. The senator said that the reciprocity bill would be voted upon early tomorrow and that the bill would in all probability be placed in the hands of the chief executive before he leaves for Beverly to spend the week end. He stated that he saw no reason for a delay about the vote tomorrow and was sure that the measure would become a law before 5:30 o'clock in the afternoon.

LaFollette Scores Press.

Washington, July 21.—Assailing the press of the United States for its support of the Canadian reciprocity measure Senator LaFollette, of Wisconsin, made his closing speech against the reciprocity bill in the senate this afternoon. He expressed the belief that the newspapers of the country would lose their influence to a noticeable extent because of the stand taken upon the measure. The Senator said that the Republicans were not inconsistent because of their opposition; that the Progressives stood just where they did in the tariff fight of 1909, but the reciprocity bill was not a true Republican measure. He charged that the Democrats had violated their platform plank by voting with the Republican high tariff forces. When Senator LaFollette concluded Senators Smith and Gore spoke, the former opposing the bill and the latter favoring it.

TARIFF

Revision Fight Will Now Command the Attention of the Senate For a While.

Special to Telegram.

Washington, July 21.—The big fight for tariff revision will be on just as soon as the Canadian reciprocity bill is passed by the Senate. The fight is going to hinge on the Farmers Free List bill. The insurgents and Democrats are preparing to offer many amendments that will greatly affect the measure as passed by the House and they have hopes of annexing some of these to the bill and putting it through the Senate.

Investigate Tube Company. Special to Telegram.

Pittsburg, Pa., July 21.—Officials of the National Tube Company, a subsidiary of the United States steel trust, have been notified that the congressional committee will be here this week. Orders have been given to admit them to the McKeesport plant. The committee will look into the wages paid employees and the conditions under which they labor.

CONFLICT

In Portugal Between Royalist and Monarchist Forces Seems Imminent.

Special to Telegram.

Lisbon, Portugal, July 21.—An invasion, according to late dispatches, by the royalist forces seems imminent. All attention is now fixed upon the northern part of the republic. The anarchists have thousands of rifles, field guns and maxims. The monarchists are on the Spanish frontier and are daily practicing and drilling. The situation is critical and activities are likely to begin at once.

SENATOR BAILEY. PAST AND PRESENT.

The Concord Tribune comes to the defense of Senator Bailey of Texas, taking exception to The Telegram's statement that he was once regarded as one of the ablest men in the Senate. The Tribune thinks there may be a difference of opinion as to the wisdom of Bailey's course in public life but there is no ground for a difference of opinion as to his ability. The Telegram sticks to its original proposition. Bailey was once regarded as one of the Senate's ablest members, by men of his own party and men of all parties. He is no longer so regarded, in his own party, while he may receive praise occasionally from Republican sources for the aid given that party.

The Telegram understands that The Tribune is contending that Bailey's character has not changed and there has been no diminution of his powers. Perhaps that is true. Bailey may be the same Bailey of a few years ago; but the public estimate of Bailey has changed and a multitude of men have come to the conclusion that he overestimated his ability. This conclusion is based on Bailey's acts and his record. Bailey was once regarded as one of the ablest men in the Senate, but tens of thousands of citizens have concluded that his ability was over-rated; and this opinion is not based on difference of political opinion, but on the weaknesses display by the Senator.

IDLE LANDS AND THE LABOR PROBLEM.

The Hickory Times-Mercury says that there are 140,000 acres of idle land in Catawba county. Presumably this is land which has been worn out and abandoned or which is lying idle for lack of sufficient rural population to occupy and cultivate it. The Times-Mercury urges the importance of securing sufficient additions to the population of the county to place this land under cultivation.

There is probably more or less uncultivated, unoccupied land in every county in the State, and almost every county community has its problem nowadays of the scarcity of labor. More people are needed on the farms of North Carolina and of every Southern State. The best class of country people is the home owning class, the farmers who purchase land; but there is a demand for farm laborers in many sections. This is especially the case in the cotton growing sections of the South. There will be little increase in cotton production without additions to the rural population of the cotton States. The people are producing at present about as large cotton crops as they can cultivate and market. The cotton farmers are thoroughly alive to conditions, and knowing that more people will produce more cotton, they have discouraged immigration and thrown every possible obstacle in the way of the business men of the South who have sought to induce people to settle in this section. The cotton farmers desire to hold the size of the crop to its present average proportions, fearing that larger crops will decrease the price below the cost of production. They are acting wisely in this respect, but they have not considered the fact that every crop known in the Temperate Zone will grow with more or less success in the South and that farmers who may remove to this section from the grain growing and cattle raising States are likely to engage in these lines and leave off cotton production.

In North Carolina grain growing sections the farmers, perhaps, do not have the reason for opposing immigration which the cotton farmers have thought justified their opposition to it. There is never likely to be produced in this State a surplus of wheat and corn, oats, hay or other farm products which cannot be profitably disposed of. The need for farm labor and for additional home-owning farmers in some sections of the State is very great, and there is, unfortunately, little prospect of it growing less for some years. Agricultural North Carolina should welcome good citizens and good farmers to every country community. The wealth of the soil in many sections is practically untouched. Let practical farmers be induced to enter the State and help us develop its resources, improve the lands and increase its wealth.

The Piedmont says that the way to success lies through Greenville. Through Greenville to Spartanburg, perhaps.

Baltimore wants to break into one of the big leagues with a baseball team. Baltimore and Charlotte have similar feelings, except that the South Atlantic League is big enough to satisfy Charlotte's ambition.

The Greenville, South Carolinian, says, Piedmont thinks The Telegram is a pure food expert. Our contemporary is not far wrong. It is easy to be a pure food expert in a State in which there is a great abundance of pure and wholesome food, most of it produced at home.

The Stanley Enterprise has purchased a linotype machine and will have it installed soon. Linotype machines in weekly newspaper offices are the exception and not the rule, and the Enterprise is evidently enjoying an abundance of business and a large measure of prosperity if a machine is needed and it is able to purchase one. May the time come when all the weeklies will find it necessary to own linotype machines and have the volume of business necessary to make the use of machines profitable.

The Philadelphia Record says that the political machines in Jersey City, N. J., expected to beat the commission government proposition by a vote of two to one. In this they failed signally, and the measure was defeated by a much smaller vote than its opponents anticipated. New Jersey has been one of the worst machine ridden States in the nation. Governor Wilson has given the State machine of the Democratic party practically a knockout blow, but the municipal machines in the several cities of the State appear to be still in good working order, and wherever commission government has been proposed in New Jersey it has been defeated by the politicians.

The tariff is a local issue. The people of Louisiana say that free sugar will ruin their State; the lumber men of North Carolina think free lumber will ruin their business; the manufacturers of cotton goods want their industry protected in the South; the grain and cattle growers of the Northwest desire protection from Canadian competition, and so it goes on down the line. The only solution of the tariff problem is to give everybody schedules as high as they desire for their several industries or businesses, place all the schedules on a revenue basis or give the country free trade. Perhaps, after all, the latter would be best for all concerned. It would insure a square deal for the ultimate consumer and would probably not injure materially the business of any American manufacturer or producer.

Governor and Senator Hoke Smith of Georgia is a brainy man, but the impression is growing that he is not brainy enough to avoid making a serious mistake at this stage of his career. He is holding two offices, and is being criticised for doing so, not only by his enemies but by some of his friends. It is understood, of course, that Senator Terrell resigned merely for the purpose of embarrassing Governor Smith; but the opinion appears to predominate that now that Georgia is without representation in Terrell's seat in the Senate, Smith should resign the governorship and proceed to Washington. This would undoubtedly disarrange the plans of Governor Smith and his friends in regard to State legislation, which they hope to have enacted and signed by the Governor or before he resigns that office. It is this fact which keeps Smith in Atlanta when so many of his fellow citizens believe he should be in Washington. The situation in Georgia is most peculiar and extraordinary. The remainder of the country will watch affairs there carefully for results; in the meantime wondering just how Hoke Smith will handle the matter in order to secure all the ends desired by himself and his friends.

WHAT NORTH CAROLINA EDITORS ARE SAYING.

We owe it to the community in which we live to do everything we can in every way possible that will be to its advantage. Our neighbor's prosperity means a great deal more to us than some one's who lives elsewhere. We should bear this in mind when buying our goods. We can afford to pay our home man a fine price for his wares rather than send our money away, knowing as we do that every dollar expended with our own citizens will help in sustaining our schools, churches and public institutions. It pays richly to patronize home industry—Marion Progress.

That Lumber Blunder.

We have always feared that our delegation in Congress with the single exception of Hon. Claude Kitchin, voted against putting lumber on the free list, would find it a very embarrassing matter at some future time.

Senator Simmons has already felt the force of that vote and when Mr. Simmons justified his vote by falling back on the famous circular written by Mr. Maxwell, Mr. Kern remarked: "I should like to know the name of the distinguished North Carolinian who took it upon himself to repudiate the national platform in order to get the vote of the lumber barons of North Carolina."

That is precisely what our members did—they repudiated the national platform. No matter what the executive committee did or said, no man has the authority to set aside the plain declaration of the convention of his party to catch anybody's vote.

Some of our people believe in protection on those things that affect their own pockets and denounce it on everything else; but they are not standing on Democratic doctrine when they take that position. The time honored policy of the party stands squarely opposed to any protection whatsoever except for revenue for the support of the government.

The lumber barons caught our friends and put them in a deep hole. The only consistent man in the bunch is Claud Kitchin. Mr. Simmons has been singled out because he is a candidate. The same thing is in hiding for the others when their time comes. Like Banquo's ghost, this thing will not down; and the gentleman who made this blunder should be careful not to repeat it. "The painted harlot of protection," as the Courier-Journal used to call it, is not a whit better because it happens to put a little money into the pockets of prosperous Democrats—Thomasville Daily News.

May Have Broad Effect.

The decision of the United States Supreme Court in the tobacco trust case, followed by the finding of the jury in the civil action just tried at Raleigh, may have a broader effect than anticipated. Should the result be, as now seems probable, the revival of competition, there will be a new line-up in business. While the American Tobacco Company has made its millions it has been done by crushing competition. It has a mint of money and can still go ahead and make millions more, but it will never be able to run rough shod over the people as it has been doing. With all its money, however, we see now and then some concern that has weathered the storm, though these companies are the exception, while the ruin of countless others is still fresh in the public mind. Towns that fought the trust when it first waded in to destroy its competitors, gave up and welcomed the huge trust with open arms, seeing, or thinking, there was nothing else to do. These same towns will of course, stand to the company for naturally they want to aid manufacturers of all kinds in their midst, yet the trust will find that its profits will not be so stupendous as heretofore. Perhaps other towns, where the handling and manufacture of tobacco have been throttled, will wake up and enter business and there will be better times all round—Reidsville Review.

Buggy Demolished in Collision With Auto.

That he is alive and walking about instead of lying mangled at the foot of the embankment on the south end of Salem bridge, to the depths of which his horse was plunged headlong by a serious collision with an automobile yesterday afternoon and his buggy smashed into a state of utter uselessness, is a matter of great surprise to James Pickard, who carries the mail from the Salem postoffice to Waughtown.

The accident occurred late yesterday afternoon. Mr. Pickard, driving his horse to the buggy, was just on the end of the bridge when an automobile, occupied by its owner, S. L. Gilmer, of Greensboro, and the driver, Will Blackwell, colored, came down the hill, struck the buggy, throwing Mr. Pickard out, smashing the vehicle and hurling the horse down an embankment some ten feet or more. Strange to say neither horse nor man nor automobile was injured, but the buggy was demolished.

It is understood that the brakes of Mr. Gilmer's machine, for some cause, refused to work when the chauffeur applied them on seeing the turn-out in front of him—Winston-Salem Journal.

Guilford Good Roads Train.

We understand that Hickory favors running a special good roads train to Guilford county to carry all the farmers who can get on it to show them the finest roads in North Carolina. The good roads club there has over 100 members and we hear they will spend their membership fund, which is $1 each, on this enterprise. We are sure that the Newton club will be willing to spend its funds the same way, and we know there are individuals who will give liberal sums to help out. And the Southern railway, deeply interested in roads as is evidenced by its demonstration train which was here Tuesday, will be as liberal as possible with us. The trip would cost the farmers nothing. If three hundred and fifty or five hundred made the trip, the result be that an equal number of good roads advocates, good roads missionaries in this kingdom of mud roads, would be turned loose to preach the gospel of progress—Catawba County News.

Young Men Spent Night in Refrigerator Car.

An unusual and unfortunate as well, experience was that of J. A. Jernigan and W. D. Gibson, two young white men at John Station one night last week. While others rolled and tossed on sleepless beds throughout a hot July night, these two complained not of the heat—they needed not the cool breezes of Wrightsville. It was cool enough where they were, thank you. They were the unfortunate victims of a mistake by which they were forced to spend the entire night closed up inside a refrigerator car which had been thoroughly iced for cantaloupes.

These young men were engaged in the early part of the night in packing crates of cantaloupes into the car for shipment, when it became necessary for the railroad crew to do some switching. The flagman or other member of the freight crew suggested that it would be best to shut the door to the car to prevent the door from sliding while being moved. The young men remained inside the car to prevent the crates from galavanting from one end of the car to the other. The consequence was a natural one. The freight crew pulled out, leaving the car on the siding with the doors still closed and forgotten. They did everything possible to attract attention and to open the door, but to no avail. All night long they stood in the ice-cold car shifting cantaloupe crates from one end of the car to the other to keep from freezing outright.

They gained their release at 6 o'clock the next morning, still alive but chilly—Laurinburg Exchange.

Tax Assessments Show Large Increase in Yadkin County.

Yadkinville, July 21.—The assessors for Yadkin county have finished their work and their report shows a large increase in real estate over 1910. The total valuation of both personal and real property in Yadkin county in 1910 was $2,452,671, for 1911 it is $3,141,802, or a total increase of $689,131.

Secretary Stimson Visits Locks and the Pacific Terminal.

Panama, July 21.—Henry L. Stimson, the American Secretary of War, continues his inspection of the canal work. Yesterday, accompanied by Brigadier General Clarence E. STRANGELY SHOT IN STREET.

Source of Bullet That Wounds New York Man a Mystery.

New York, July 21.—Whence a bullet came which pierced Frank Rosen through the left lung and close to his heart, as he walked along East Side street at midnight, and how he managed to run a full block to the next drug store with such a wound, puzzles the police and surgeons.

Rosen, 24 years old, is an automobile expert, and is said to have been alone when the mysterious bullet struck him. He retained consciousness only long enough to gasp his name to the police at the drug store, and it was said at the hospital that he would probably die without regaining his senses.

SLIDE IN CULEBRA CUT.

Shovel Buried Under Mass of Earth and Soft Rock.

Washington, July 21.—While the crew of a big steam shovel in the Culebra Cut were enjoying a holiday July 4, a mass of earth and soft rock immediately north of Gold Hill, fell into the cut and buried shovel No. 225. Another shovel is now trying to dig it out. Six days later there was another bad slide in the cut, at Las Cascades. The engineers, however, declare that the total amount of material in motion or about to move into the cut does not exceed the estimate of excavation yet to be done there.

The grand total of excavation on the canal to July 1 was 142,967,554 cubic yards, leaving to be excavated 39,570,212, or less than one-fourth of the entire amount for the completed ditch.

Honest Medicines Versus Fakes.

President Taft's recent message suggesting an amendment to the Pure Food and Drugs law in its relation to Prepared Medicines, does not refer to such standard medicines as Foley's Honey and Tar Compound and Foley's Kidney Pills, both of which are true medicines carefully compounded of ingredients whose medicinal qualities are recognized by the medical profession itself as the best known remedial agents for the diseases they are intended to counteract. For over three decades Foley's Honey and Tar Compound has been a standard remedy for coughs, colds and affections of the throat, chest and lungs for children and for grown persons, and it retains today its pre-eminence above all other preparations of its kind. Foley's Kidney Pills are equally effective and meritorious. Howard Gardner.

Many Greensboro people take their lives in their hands by neglecting the kidneys when they know these organs need help. Sick kidneys are responsible for a vast amount of suffering and ill health, but there is no need to suffer nor to remain in danger when most all diseases and aches and pains due to weak kidneys can be quickly relieved by the use of Doan's Kidney Pills. The following statement leaves no ground for doubt.

F. S. Miles, Main St., Reidsville, N. C., says: "I am a strong believer in Doan's Kidney Pills, having used two boxes of this remedy. The results were very satisfactory and consequently, I feel justified in advising other kidney sufferers to give this preparation a trial."

POPULATION COTTON STATES DRIFTING TOWARD THE CITIES

Washington, D. C., July 21.—Preliminary statistics showing the consistent cityward movement of the white and negro population of the nine Southern cotton States, based upon the returns for the censuses of 1910, 1900, and 1890, are contained in a comparative statement prepared under the supervision of William C. Hunt, chief statistician for population, in the Bureau of the Census, and issued today by Acting Census Director Falkner. The figures are preliminary and subject to necessary revision later but it is believed that there will be no material change in the percentages stated.

The nine cotton States concerned are: Alabama, Arkansas, Florida, Georgia, Louisiana, Mississippi, North Carolina, South Carolina, and Tennessee.

Of the white people of these States 13.9 per cent lived in urban areas in 1910, 14 per cent in 1900, and 11.6 per cent in 1890. Of the total negro population of the same States the percentages living in urban areas were 17.7 per cent in 1910, 14.7 per cent in 1900, and 11.8 per cent in 1890.

It appears from these percentages that the changes in the proportion of the total negro population of these States living in the urban sections have been about the same as those in the proportion of the total whites who live in cities. Both white and negro show a decided movement toward the city. From an urban proportion of 11.6 per cent in 1890 the whites have increased to 13.9 per cent in 1910. During the same period the urban proportion of negroes increased from 11.8 to 17.7 per cent.

While the proportion of whites and negroes living in the city and country can be readily measured, some care is required in stating the rate of increase. This difficulty arises from the fact that portions of the rural area are continually changing into urban districts. Urban population, as defined by the Census Of-ice, is composed of those groups that live in cities and other incorporated places having at least 2,500 inhabitants. In order to obtain a definite measure of the rate of increase it is necessary that the rate pertain to the same area for each census period. Rates of increase calculated for the places that were classed as urban or rural in 1890, are as follows:

The white population of the 1890 cities increased 27.6 per cent between 1890 and 1900. Similar rates of increase for the urban negroes are 23.3 per cent in the decade 1890 to 1900 and 30.5 per cent in the decade 1900-1910. For the rural sections of 1890 the rate of increase for the white population was 18.7 between 1890 and 1900, and 17.3 between 1900 and 1910. The increase of the negroes in the same rural sections was 17.5 between 1890 and 1900 and 8.3 between 1900 and 1910.

A comparison of these rates of increase brings out clearly the cityward trend for both races, but it shows it to be even greater for the whites than for the negroes. The rate of increase for the urban whites advanced from 27.6 to 46.6, or a difference of 19 per cent while the rate for the urban negroes advanced from 23.2 to 30.5, or a difference of 7.2 per cent.

The rate of increase in the rural sections was less for both races in the decade ending in 1910 than for that ending in 1900, but the decline in the rate of increase was very much greater for the negroes than for the whites. For the whites the change was from 18.7 per cent in the first decade to 17.3 in the last 10 years, a difference of 1.4 per cent. For the negroes the change was from 17.5 per cent to 8.3 per cent, a difference of 9.2 per cent.

SUMMER HOTELS BURN.

Guests at Sharon Springs Lose Their Personal Effects.

Sharon Springs, N. Y., July 21.—Fether's hotel and the Hotel Rockville, two of the ten big summer hostleries here, were destroyed by fire last night, and more than 100 guests lost practically all their baggage and personal effects.

The fire started in an old building, which was struck by lightning Sunday. The flames had been smoldering in the ruins ever since, and were fanned into fresh life by a high wind. The blaze spread so rapidly that the fire department could do nothing, and many of the hotel guests had difficulty in getting to the street in safety.

A corkscrew does the opening turn.

ALDRICH CURRENCY PLAN TO BE REJECTED

Fondest Dream of Retired Rhode Islander Will Come to Naught—Congress Will Abolish National Monetary Commission--Reputation of Aldrich Great Drawback to This Measure.

(By VICTOR ELLIOTT.)
Special to Telegram.

Washington, July 21.—The belief is spreading that Nelson W. Aldrich, for many years virtually dictator of how the Republican tariff should be framed in the Senate, will see one of his fondest plans come to naught by the rejection of the Aldrich currency plan, and the abolition of the National Monetary Commission, which the former Rhode Island Senator still dominates. Aldrich, it has been said, has long desired as the crowning achievement of his public career the creation of a new national banking system, which would be identified by his name. That wish is probably not destined to materialize. The Democrats and insurgent Republicans, that latter group in sympathy with the Cummins currency measure, are set upon a plan to thwart the will of Aldrich. Every indication is that they will succeed.

That in the end the Aldrich plan will be wholly remodeled into some form of centralizing the country's banking system which will organize a new banking credit system, calculated to prevent possible money panics in the future, seems to be the program of both political parties. The project is to establish a system that will be non-partisan in character, and thoroughly safe and satisfactory. Aldrich, whose name has made some persons grow pale in the past, has lost the confidence of the public at large. This has been due, partly, because of the unpopularity of the Payne-Aldrich tariff law, whose high protective duties, Republicans are disposed to say gave impetus to the Democratic landslide last fall, and the high cost of living, which has prevailed during the operation of the measure. Popular opinion, having effect on national legislation—more effect than politicians are willing to admit—it has been rumored that the Aldrich currency bill which has been submitted to the Monetary Commission, will be changed so materially before Congress will approve it that the retired Rhode Islander will not recognize his measure when it becomes a "finished product." It will be torn to pieces and practically a new measure substituted in its place by Congress.

Early in the next regular session of Congress, according to present indications, the National Monetary Commission will be abolished completely. The bill by Senator Cummins, so providing, has a good chance of passage it now appears. A number of Republicans and Democrats in the Senate say that the Cummins bill will surely pass, if the Monetary Commission does not do the discreet thing in the meantime and announce that it will terminate its own existence by voluntarily bringing its deliberations to an end.

Aside from the Aldrich brand of monetary reform, which is an unwholesome measure in the eyes of the people of the country, the National Monetary Commission has long been a refuge for "lame ducks." Ex-members of the United States Senate who have been repudiated by the people, have been foisted upon the Monetary Commission at the same salary—$7,500 a year—that they received while in the Senate. The tendency to distribute these soft berths among discarded politicians has drawn no small amount of criticism on the present administration.

The Monetary Commission is a doomed organization today. From the murmuring in Congress the handling of currency and banking questions by Congress next winter will not stop with the abolition of the Monetary Commission. Serious attention, from all indications, will be given to reforming the banking laws, and when that time comes "the Aldrich plan" will be sidetracked. The fact is, despite the partially of probably a majority of the members of the Monetary Commission for Aldrich, "the Aldrich plan" has been laboring under a handicap since its inception, because of the political reputation of its author. One of the big thorns in the side of this proposition is the National Citizens' League, the purpose of which is to promote the cause of sound money and currency legislation. The plan of Aldrich to establish under Federal sanction a national reserve association has received the bitter condemnation of the National Citizens' League.

It is generally expected the Monetary Commission will report its findings and recommendations early in the next Congress. Before next December rolls around, however, the National Citizens' League will present a plan of its own. There will be a large number of improvements on the Aldrich idea in this plan, it is said, including a number of suggestions of the bankers of the country to the Monetary Commission which the latter organization ignored.

The League has begun a systematic campaign to interest the public and Congress in their plans. Prof. J. Laurence Laughlin of Chicago, chairman of the executive committee of the League, has been in Washington, and has been given encouragement by numerous Senators and representatives of both political parties, in carrying on the work of the League. Therefore, the prospects are excellent for a more progressive and democratic national banking and currency system than the Rhode Island Senator would have.

An Old-Fashioned Dish.

When in doubt about what to eat—eat ham and eggs. This time of year the appetite has a fashion of becoming indifferent and refusing to respond at the mention of dishes that usually cause it to take on a keen edge. Ham and eggs, served country style, will usually supply the want. In frying ham country style choose slices not too thin. If very salty, it may be necessary to parboil it. Trim and place in a heated fryingpan, using no fat, and fry over a quick fire for ten minutes. Allow six eggs to a slice of ham. Break the eggs into a bowl. Add two tablespoonfuls of sweet cream and beat thoroughly. Salt and pepper slightly and when the ham is almost done turn the eggs over it in the pan and fry until they set. Serve on a large platter garnished with curly parsley.

Tutti Frutti Jam.

One box or drawer of strawberries, three baskets or half drawer of raspberries, one and a half pounds black tartarian cherries, one and a half pounds Royal Ann cherries, two and a half pounds apricots, one and a half pounds gooseberries, juice of three pounds currants. Prepare the fruit as follows: Pit and cut cherries in half, cut strawberries in half and apricots into suitable pieces; scald the gooseberries twice and drain; mix all fruit together, allowing one cup of granulated sugar for every cup of mixed fruit; add the currant juice, allowing one cup of sugar for every cup of the juice. Boil 20 or 40 minutes, fill jelly glasses and seal as for jelly.

SCOTLAND COUNTY TEACHERS' MEETING AT LAURINBURG

Laurinburg, July 21.—The Scotland County Teachers' Institute is now in session at the Graded School building in Laurinburg, for the white teachers, and in the Normal and Industrial school building, for the colored. Supt. E. D. Dusey of the Laurinburg schools, has charge of the Institute, assisted by Miss Miriam McFayden of Clinton. The work at the colored school is being done by P.

W. Dawkins of Durham. The attendance is good, practically all the teachers of the town and county schools being in attendance. It is decidedly the most successful thing of its kind yet held in the county.

Next Thursday, July 27, is expected to be made a most important and interesting day in the institute. Prof. L. C. Brogdon, State Supervisor of Elementary Education, of Raleigh, is expected to be present. He will expect to have all the school committeemen of the county present. He will talk principally to them. Dr. J. A. Ferrall, hook worm specialist, is also expected to be on hand.

WELCOME WORDS TO WOMEN

Women who suffer with disorders peculiar to their sex should write to Dr. Pierce and receive free the advice of a physician of over 40 years' experience—a skilled and successful specialist in the diseases of women. Every letter of this sort has the most careful consideration and is regarded as sacredly confidential. Many sensitively modest women write fully to Dr. Pierce what they would shrink from telling to their local physician. The local physician is pretty sure to say that he cannot do anything without "an examination." Dr. Pierce holds that these distasteful examinations are generally needless, and that no woman, except in rare cases, should submit to them.

Dr. Pierce's treatment will cure you right in the privacy of your own home. His "Favorite Prescription" has cured hundreds of thousands, some of them the worst of cases.

It is the only medicine of its kind that is the product of a regularly graduated physician. The only one good enough that its makers dare to print its every ingredient on its outside wrapper. There's no secrecy. It will bear examination. No alcohol and no habit-forming drugs are found in it. Some unscrupulous medicine dealers may offer you a substitute. Don't take it. Don't trifle with your health. Write to World's Dispensary Medical Association, Dr. R. V. Pierce, President, Buffalo, N. Y.,—take the advice received and be well.

DAILY MARKET REPORTS

WEATHER FORECASTS.

Washington, D. C. July 21.—For North Carolina: Local showers tonight or Saturday; light to moderate, variable winds.

Louisiana—Showers, except fair in southwest.

Arkansas and Oklahoma—Showers. East Texas—Generally fair in south, showers in north.

West Texas—Generally fair in south, showers in north.

Eastern Belt—Local showers.

weather in central and south Texas. No rain, cloudy and showery in the rest of the belt, with precipitation heaviest in Arkansas, Tenn., and the Atlantic coast districts. Indications are for fair in Texas, generally cloudy and unsettled, showery weather elsewhere.

The market opened easier and declined to 11.93 for October on straddle selling and a further cut in the price of the fruit of the loom cotton to 7 1/2 cents. As the crop is not yet made, the cutting off of the price of goods is altogether anticipative. The market steadied after the first hour on New York reports of considerable weak short interest and McFadden buying cotton.

With the exception of southern and southwestern Texas advices from Texas are that crop prospects are very much improved since the rains.

MUCH INTEREST IN M. E. CONFERENCE AT PLEASANT GARDEN

Great interest is being inspired and maintained daily by the large attendance at the Greensboro District Conference of the M. E. church, South, now in session at Pleasant Garden.

Yesterday was laymen's day at the conference and several forcible addresses were delivered, notably those of Drs. Fayer and Reid.

The program was in charge of G. H. Miles, of this city, who is an enthusiastic worker in the cause of foreign missions. Splendid talks were made by C. F. Ireland, G. H. Miles, Dr. C. F. Reid, secretary of the National Laymen's Movement, Dr. H. K. Boyer, missionary secretary of the Western North Carolina Conference, and by a young Japanese, J. S. Ryang, who is studying for the ministry at Vanderbilt University. The first speaker dwelt upon the wave of religion that is sweeping his country, stating that from 1100 to 2000 people attended church at one place in Japan, the majority of them walking distances of from 5 to 25 miles to enjoy the privilege of being present at the services.

The meeting of the afternoon was given over to reports from representatives of the various woman's missionary societies of all the churches of the conference. Mrs. L. H. Martin, Mrs. Blanche Carr and Miss Irene Boyles delivered these addresses that told of the needs and improvements of the work for foreign missions among the women members of the congregations.

Further discussion of this topic was taken up at the evening session. Dr. Reid, who for 20 years was a missionary to China delivered the principal address and most of the Greensboro delegation remained over night at Pleasant Garden to enjoy this and other talks. Dr. Reid presented an able speech, embodying a sweeping appeal for help for the struggling thousands of heathen who have not had the advantages of religion and civilization extended to this enlightened nation.

OPTOMETRISTS WILL MEET IN CHARLOTTE --NEW OFFICERS

Asheville, July 21.—The annual meeting of the North Carolina Optical Society adjourned yesterday at 6:30 o'clock, after having selected Charlotte as the next meeting place and elected officers for the ensuing year.

The meeting was called to order yesterday at 10:30 by President Frank M. Jolly of Raleigh, after which there was a discussion as to the new certificates issued by the State board, following which Dr. H. J. Cook of Knoxville, ex-president of the American Optical association, delivered an interesting address on "Dynamic Skiametry." He was extended a rising vote of thanks for his address and interest in the meeting.

Samuel Levy of Charlotte read a paper on "Cheerful Optometrist and His Duty to His Society." This was followed by an open discussion on subjects of interest to the society, during which it was decided to request the State board of examiners to issue a booklet setting forth the laws and regulations of optometry, the same to be distributed among the various county officers for information along these lines.

Following the opening of the question box at the afternoon session, Rev. F. N. Day, of Winston-Salem, talked on "How to make a Success of Optometry." The report of the auditing committee was read and the meeting opened for discussions on "Why every Optometrist should be a member of the State Society."

The committee appointed to act on the report of the president reported that it be adopted. The reports of the legislative committee, the committee on ethics and prosecution were read and adopted. The committee appointed to select the place for the next annual meeting reported a disagreement, in view of the fact that Raleigh and Charlotte warmly contested for the meeting, which it was later decided would be held in Charlotte following the retail jewelers' meeting some time in June, the date to be selected later.

The nominating committee made its report and the following officers were elected: President, J. D. Hathaway, Elizabeth City; first vice president, C. H. Honess, Asheville; second vice president, Odell Southerland, Charlotte; secretary, W. S. Granger, Goldsboro; treasurer, F. M. Jolly, Raleigh. The various committees were elected.

President Hathaway took charge of the meeting and a vote of thanks was extended to the local optometrists, Mr. Alexander, proprietor of the Battery Park hotel, where the sessions of the society were held, the city and to the retiring officers.

President Hathaway appointed L. I. Alexander, of this city, as a committee on publication to write articles pertaining to optometry, and have them published each month in the papers throughout the state in order that the readers may become familiarized with optometry.

The board of examiners, before which there were eight applicants for licenses to practice optometry, will announce the names of the successful candidates within the next few days.

Raleigh, July 21.—The Wake County Board of Equalization will meet Monday to receive the tax books and to hear complaints from property owners as to the assessment of property for taxation. The valuations have been increased, it is thought, about 25 or 30 per cent, and Wake's taxable property, including personal but exclusive of corporations, will amount to approximately $24,000,000, as against $17,400,000 last year.

The railroad and other corporation taxes will amount to something over $4,500,000, and it is believed the total valuation will be in the neighborhood of $28,000,000. Of course the board of equalization may reduce the assessments and the increase may not be as large as was at first believed it would be.

There will not be a large increase in the assessment of personal property, some of the townships actually showing a loss. In Raleigh township, however, the increase has been large, amounting to $180,000. Two of the books have not been received by the tax-listers and assessor and until they are in exact figures cannot be given.

When the board of equalization meets Monday it is thought there will be some wrangling. Many persons will doubtless think their property has been assessed too much and the board will have much to contend with.

Girls Are Admitted as Members Of the Boy Scouts In England

Photos by American Press Association.

ENGLAND is the real home of the boy scouts movement, which has recently become so popular in the United States. There is hardly a hamlet in all England that has not its council, and the scouts had a more or less prominent part in the recent coronation exercises. Over there the organization is more military than it is in this country, and the drill through which the youthful members go partake largely of a military character. Girls are admitted to the boy scouts in England, their work being that of nursing. The pictures above show a boy scout in the uniform adopted for summer use, a group of girl scouts attending to a "wounded" scout and a number of boys testing a bridge they have constructed.

NEW FLY-CATCHING DEVICE

Pests of Hot Weather Days Are Sucked Into Traps and Afterward Killed.

The limit of uses to which a vacuum apparatus may be put seems to be boundless. Here is a plan by which it catches flies. A pipe leading from the vacuum tank is suspended across the room horizontally with a series of funnels depending from it.

One funnel can be hung over a table, for instance, and another over the window sill. As the flies enter the window those that come close to the funnel are sucked up into the pipe above. For those that escape a bait of bread and molasses is set on the table below the mouth of the second funnel. When the insects make for this feast they are whirled up into the opening above as soon as they come within the radius of suction. Valves at the top of the funnels close down when the vacuum motor is shut off and the traps can be removed and immersed in scalding water to kill the captives.

People of This Buncombe Township Live to Great Ages.

Asheville, July 21.—Reems Creek township, Buncombe county, probably holds the record for the number of aged persons residing within its confines. Reems Creek township lies along the cold, sparkling waters of Reems Creek, which has its source in the Craggies where the "snow birds nest" and along whose banks there stands today a part of the old house where the great North Carolinian, Senator Zebulon Baird Vance was born. It is within this township that the people live to ripe old ages and the death recently of Capt. "Jim" Davis at the age of 87 years, calls to mind that seven years ago there were 21 persons in the township over 80 years of age. Since that time, however, 16 of these aged residents have "passed over the river," but during that time, though, eight have reached the 80-year mile post and the number now residing along the creek who have reached four-score years is 13. There are scores of people in Reems Creek township who are over 70 years of age and are still hale and hearty.

Josiah's Devotion to God. 2 Chron. xxxiv:1-13.

Golden Text—Remember now thy Creator in the days of thy youth. Eccl. xli:1.

(1) Verse 1-2—Whose son was Josiah?

(2) What had been the character of Amon?

(3) Whose son was Amon?

(4) What had probably induced the wicked reign of Amon?

(5) Is a boy of eight years of age morally responsible to God?

(6) Verse 3—How old was Josiah when he began to seek after God?

(7) If Josiah when a boy had not sought and found the Lord, what effect would that have probably had upon his reign?

(8) If a boy is not converted by the time he is sixteen years of age, what are his chances of ever being converted?

(9) Take one hundred boys at sixteen years of age, in the same social positions, fifty of them converted and fifty not; what are the chances respectively for the worldly success of these two sets of boys?

(10) In the training of boys there are at least three things essential to their success; health, education, and character or religion. Which should parents pay most attention to without neglecting any one, and why?

(11) How old was Josiah when he began to take an aggressive part in the spiritual welfare of his kingdom?

(12) Verses 4-7—Why should the rulers of the people feel responsibility for the righteousness of the nation, and see to it personally that reforms are carried out?

(13) Which comes first in order and why, the purging of the nation from gross national sin, or the outward and public worship of God?

(14) Why can there be no real worship of God on the part of an individual or community, if at the same time sin is being committed?

(15) Verse 8—Which should have first claim upon our resources, our homes or the church?

(16) If the homes of the people are well cared for, and the church is in a run down condition, how would you estimate such a people?

(17) Verse 9—Who are the people that are in duty bound to keep up the church of God?

(18) From whom had the money been collected to repair the Temple at Jerusalem?

(19) Should money be solicited from outsiders to build, repair, or keep up the house of God?

(20) Can you find any place in the Bible where they raised money for the worship of God other than by direct giving?

(21) Where do you find in the Old or New Testament any precedent for pew renting, bazaars, concerts, lectures, tea meetings, or for any other commercial method for financing the church? (This is one of the questions which may be answered in writing by members of the club.)

(22) Verses 10-13—Why is it vital that the church of God should be kept in a comfortable and an attractive condition?

Municipal Court.

Noxie Wilson, a young negro boy, was fined the costs yesterday morning by Judge Hines in Municipal court, for breaking into a car. The fine was made light on account of the youthfulness of the boy.

George Bangor, a negro preacher, was given a fine of $10 and the costs for an assault.

Turpentine will remove tar from any kind of fabric.

To remove iron rust from white goods moisten spot, cover with cream of tartar, put in a basin of water, simmer gently for an hour. Rinse and dry.

To clean linoleum, place some fresh skim milk in a basin, and with a clean cloth dipped in the milk wipe over the floor, and the linoleum will look as good as new.

To effectually clean a dirty bottle, half fill the bottle with slack coal; add just enough water to cover, and shake vigorously. Then empty out, and rinse in several waters.

Sweep your carpets thoroughly to remove all dust and dirt. After an hour slightly dampen a broom, and again sweep over the whole surface. In this way an old carpet will look clean and fresh, however faded it may be.

Glass is an ideal shelving for a kitchen closet, as it can be kept clean so easily. If this is too costly paint the shelves white and give a coat of enamel. This is easily scrubbed, and does away with the necessity of papers.

The walls of a kitchen quickly look dingy and for this reason should be painted or have a washable paper. When gray with soot dust with a soft brush covered with cheesecloth, then wipe with a cloth wet in cold water. Hot water has a yellowish effect.

Strawberry Puffs.

Cream puffs and eclairs, filled with crushed and sweetened strawberries instead of the usual cream, are delicious. Into a granite saucepan put one cup of water or milk, one-half cup butter (scant measure) and boil. Then add one cup flour, stirring continually, and cook two minutes. By this time it should be smooth and velvety. Remove from fire and, when cool, beat in four eggs, one at a time. Beat ten to twenty minutes, then drop by spoonfuls upon buttered tins and bake in a hot oven for 20 minutes. While still warm coat with strawberry icing made by adding strawberry juice to a cup of powdered or confectioner's sugar to make a fine icing. When cold cut open and fill with crushed and sweetened strawberries.

An Expert in Pepper.

Fashion is fickle, table service as well as in other things. The dinner table of today is not what it was a few years ago.

Odd little novelties for the table have crept in recently. One of the newest is small cruet frames for each guest, and of different kinds. Cayenne, Nepal, Aji (from Peru), Hungarian, paprika and Chile powder are used so that each guest may flavor his food to his taste. The really up-to-date person nowadays pretends to be an expert in pepper.

Molasses Cookies.

Two and one-half cups sugar; two cups molasses, one tablespoon ginger, one tablespoon cloves, one tablespoon cinnamon. Let this come to a boil. When cool stir in four eggs and one tablespoon soda, and flour enough to roll out next day. Moderate oven.

LAYMEN'S MISSION MOVEMENT GOES FORWARD IN STATE

An interesting statement in regard to the spread and accomplishments of the Laymen's Missionary Movement in North Carolina, was given out yesterday by John McEachern, state secretary of the movement. With the progress of the work thriving splendidly and increasing the scope of its influence perceptibly day by day under his efficient management, Mr. McEachern is going to the various points in the State where the interest in his efforts demands his attention and keeping the movement ever widening its influence in the cause of foreign missions. Mr. McEachern makes his headquarters in Greensboro and is on a visit of a few days here before again making a circuit of the points where the cause of missions is now being agitated.

In a great follow-up campaign after the important State convention held in this city during a week of January, 1909, numerous county conventions are being held and are stirring up the church members by individual canvasses. Greensboro had a conference of ministers and laymen throughout the county recently and it was decided that on a certain Sunday and continuing through the following week the pastors of all the churches of this city and High Point, each accompanied by a layman, should go to all churches, denominations not considered in the selections for the various congregations, and hold a thorough canvass. This plan is yet under preparation and will be carried through in the early fall.

County conventions of the same kind are being planned in numbers but profiting by experience they are being managed more wisely and with better results than ever. In Wilkesboro on the 23rd, and Montreat on the 28th of July will be held these conventions that are touching the members directly and putting the responsibility fairly upon their shoulders. In Statesville, opening with a rousing meeting in the afternoon of September 8 and closing the following Sunday in a huge mass meeting, Iredell county will hold the most important of these conventions yet attempted. Also in that month, Lexington, Albemarle, Fayetteville and Laurinburg, though the dates have not been definitely decided, will have conventions. Judging by the good effects of two of the earliest conventions held, in Mt. Airy and Burlington respectively on the 23-25 of June and June 30-July 2 where over a hundred delegates from the county, beside the local laymen attended meetings, although vastly higher expectations are entertained, these seven conventions now in sight will inspire church members and spread the message of missions immensely.

North Carolina is leading the nation in its spread of the Laymen's Movement. A conference of the secretaries of the denominational boards decided to center all their strength on this State and so place a good example before the eyes of the laymen of the country. Accordingly the first State secretary was elected and put in charge and the county plan of holding conventions adopted. The results have been noteworthy. The church members of Greensboro have increased the percentage of their gifts for foreign missions 173 per cent, and in some churches the increase has been over 500 per cent. The effects here are shown over the entire nation and the example is being followed. The magazine published by the leaders of the movement, called "Men and Missions," has monthly articles on the work in this city and State and bestowing deserved credit upon the willing workers for the cause in this community.

COURTEOUS ACT REWARDED.

Young Man Who Gave Up Lower Berth Bequeathed $20,000.

Atlanta, Ga., July 21.—A courteous act on the part of William R. O'Neal, of Bainbridge, Ga., has been rewarded by a fortune. When O'Neal exchanged a lower for an upper sleeping car berth with J. T. Young, of Oakland, Cal., four years ago when the two men were en route to Florida, where Mr. Young was going for his health, he thought little of the incident.

Evidently Mr. Young considered it a great favor, for in his will he left $20,000 to the Georgia young man, who is 28 years old. O'Neal was in Atlanta yesterday and was informed of his good fortune by a son of Mr. Young who had come to Georgia to look for him.

MASTODON IS SUSPECTED.

Skeleton of Prehistoric Animal Unearthed in Idaho.

Montpelier, Idaho, July 21.—The Smithsonian Institution will soon be enriched with the skeleton of a huge prehistoric animal excavated this week from a sand hill five miles west of this town. At a depth of 17 feet from the surface workmen digging a canal encountered two large bones. Subsequent digging brought to light two wagon loads of bones. One knuckle, identified as a knee joint, measured fifteen inches in diameter. The finders believe they have unearthed the skeleton of a mastodon. It is in a good state of preservation, and is being handled carefully in order that it may be acceptable to the National Museum at Washington.

What to Buy.

If you had to furnish a home, but had very little means, what would you buy first?

This is a problem that many young women have to solve, and that will have to be solved in the future by many more.

The best thing to do is to buy only necessary articles at first and to buy furnishings of good quality.

It is far better to have a few good household articles, and the touch of a woman's hand over all, than to have a house full of cheap things that only "make a show."

Buy slowly and well.

WATER MAINS OF CITY EXTENDED IN MAY AND JUNE

During the months of May and June the sum of $5,492.46 was expended in operating the waterworks plant and making improvements of a permanent nature, more than half the amount being expended for the latter. The general expenses of the department for the two months were $2,692.50, while the permanent improvements cost $2,799.96. The permanent improvements included the extension of several mains as follows: A six inch main on McCulloch between Asheboro and Bellevue, a distance of something like 400 feet, at a cost of $368.77; extension of a six inch main for 528 feet on North Elm street, cost $624.70; extension of a four inch main on Arlington street for a distance of 420 feet, costing $227.48; extension of a four inch main on McCulloch between Elm and Arlington, for 408 feet, costing $275.16; extension of a six-inch main on Broad avenue for 888 feet, costing $911.85. The total extension was for 2644 feet.

Three fire hydrants were installed on Fifth avenue at a cost of $122.80.

Commissioner Foushee has other extensions in view and these were being made as rapidly as possible. The force will at once extend the main on Keogh street. It is the intention of the city to extend mains to the places most needing water first and then as rapidly as is possible extend the service to the other parts of the city.

DR. WALTERS ALLOWED TWINS BUT ONE SAFE HIT

"Tony" Was Master of Situation Yesterday, Carroll, Rickard and Fuller Only Ones Who Connected With Boyle ---Two Were Three Sackers.

By a score of 2 to 0 Doyle's men again humiliated the followers of Clancy at Cone park yesterday afternoon. Tony Walters' curves and drops were too much for the visitors and one measly hit was all that Winston got, during the performance. Boyle was the slaban for the Twins and did good work until the fatal eighth, when a three-bagger by Carroll, a base on balls to Stuart, a bad throw of Shumaker's and Rickard's single gave Greensboro the winning runs.

The game was featured by the work of the opposing slaban. Dr. Walters had the best of it and held the Twins at his mercy. Shumaker got one hit in the fifth and was sacrificed to second, but died there. Not a single Winston man saw the third bag and never was there danger of the visitors' scoring. Two bases on balls in the sixth also got a man as far as second and two errors in the eighth resulted the same way, but right there was as far as the doctor would allow them to go.

For five innings Boyle pitched without allowing a hit. He walked two men, but one of these was out in attempt to pilfer second. Rickard drew the first blood, when in the sixth he connected safely with the cork-center for three sacks, after two men were down, but the necessary hit to score him was not forthcoming. In the seventh Fuller led off with a single, but was out trying to steal second.

The eighth started off no better than the other innings. Lowman went out third to first. Carroll fanned at two swift ones! The third strike came flying his way, he hit it squarely on the nose and Clemens found it down at the left field fence in time to keep Carroll from scoring. With Carroll on third, "Tiny" Stuart was given a free pass. Tony flew out to Shumaker, who threw the ball bad to third. The horse hide rolled back to the bleachers and Carroll scored. Then Rickard landed on the sphere again for a neat single scoring Stuart. Doyle flew out to center. In the ninth frame the Twins went out in one-two-three-order, and "it was all over, but the shouting." The game was featured by the timely drive of Carroll and the hit of Rickard that scored Stuart, but above all by the superb pitching of Walters. It was one of the really "good games" of the season.

Umpire Wilkinson officiated at the plate, and while he was uniformly fair on balls and strikes, he gets both players and spectators sore on him by his conceit and "smart" things he says to every player who bats his eye irregularly.

This afternoon's game will commence at 4 o'clock.

TEN THOUSAND DOLLAR FIRE IN DURHAM.

Durham, July 21.—The J. H. Malone wood working shop, the store and dwelling occupied by Mr. Curtis Yates and a small dwelling occupied by colored people all situated on Pettigrew street, were almost totally destroyed by fire about 4 o'clock this morning.

The fire is supposed to have originated from a live wire in the wood working plant. The fact that no fire is used in the plant, all of the machinery being operated by electric power strengthens the theory.

The wood working plant was almost entirely consumed before the fire was discovered. The alarm was given by the Southern train as it pulled in from Raleigh and the whistles on the yard engines were brought into service to arouse the people of the city. It was four minutes to four o'clock this morning when the alarm was turned into the fire department. The response of the firemen was very prompt, but on account of the great progress the fire had made, they were able to do practically nothing toward saving the lumber plant.

The dwellings and store situated on each side of the shop, were also a mass of flames when the firemen arrived. These buildings were badly damaged and the stock of goods in the store was badly damaged by water as well as fire. A part of the furniture in the dwelling was saved.

Live wires broken loose from the shop by the fire scattered about the scene made fighting the fire difficult as well as dangerous. Several of the firemen came into contact with the wires and received severe shocks, but no one was seriously injured.

The loss to the Malone plant is estimated between $5,000 and $6,000, with $2,250 insurance. Mr. Yates carried $1,700 insurance on his merchandise. The total loss is about $10,000, which is partly covered by insurance.

KILLED WIFE AND SAID HE "DID A GOOD JOB."

Jackson, Miss., July 21.—"I killed my wife and I believe I got her grandmother. I did a good job. I am willing to die for it."

Thus spoke Emmett Yeagley, twenty-two years old, the husband who shot and killed his sixteen-year-old wife of four months, and probably fatally injured her grandmother, Mrs. Price. Yeagley surrendered after the crime. He says he has a letter declaring his wife was unfaithful.

The altar was an ancient cook stove. The time, July and August.

The rest of the family who called her mother saw what was going on after it was too late.

Moral—Don't permit any woman you care for to cook for your family on anything but a good gas range, especially during the torrid days of July and August.

Buy her a Cabinet Gas Range—one that will do away with the drudgery of handling fuel and ashes; one that will shorten her cooking hours and insure a cool kitchen.

Order a Cabinet Range. Small monthly payments if desired. Range delivered and connected free.
